READ P. BLACK

Officially Honored; Makes Splendid Record as County Clerk

Barbourville, Ky., July 28, 1913
To Whom it may Concern:

After a thorough examination of all the business transacted through the office of the County Court Clerk, Phillip D. Arnold, Assistant State Inspector and Examiner, wish to state for the benefit of the citizens of Knox county that in all my work in like offices throughout the State, I found the records of Read P. Black in a most satisfactory shape with an overpaid balance to the State of $10.00. It is always better to keep ahead with the Commonwealth than for an official to find the clerk behind, as is often the case, in paying the State its legal fees, and when those fees are due instead of the State at much expense being compelled to "show you" your mistakes, etc.

Such a record as the one County Court Clerk Black has made and it is the very best official record made by any clerk throughout the State whose books and official acts I have examined, speaks well for the instating, laborious and efficient management of his office, and deserves my official approval.

PHILIP D. ARNOLD,
Asst. State Inspector and Examiner.

CARD

To the Citizens of Knox County:

Having heard that is is being circulated over the county that my father, Sam H. Black, and his folks and friends intend belting the Republican ticket this fall, I desire to say to the citizens of the county that these statements are incorrect and unjust to us. We are the race as Republican expecting our opponents, if we win the nomination to support us and help us win in November; or if we did not win, expecting to support the one that did win and help him gain the election in November. This we understand purpose and intention to do; and this is the rest.

Under that some things were done in primary election that Sam won the nomination and deserves to make the and we are what we the rest.

We believe the party has a splendid ticket and that every man on ought to be elected and will be elected this fall.

Yours respectfully,
JAMES T. BLACK.

BY WALT MASON.

Oh, you fill me with a pain, Harry Thaw; for you bob up again, Harry Thaw; I had thought you safely canned, and my life seemed sweet and grand, and I smiled to beat the band, Harry Thaw. Then, to come my spirit's goose, Harry Thaw, from retirement you broke loose, Harry Thaw; oh, you made the best of spirits, and your name in lurid tints fills the doggone public prints, Harry Thaw. You're a chesnut old and weired, Harry Thaw; there are hens' nests in your beard, Harry Thaw; you have wearied gods and men with your larynx and your pen, yet, gadzooks! you come again, Harry Thaw! You're a cheap and poor excuse, Harry Thaw; I'd be glad to see you loose, Harry Thaw, if I thought that you would chase to the jumping over place; take away that clammy face, Harry Thaw! You and Evelyn are freaks, Harry Thaw, and the country with you reeks, Harry Thaw; but the country's getting tired, and when both of you are fired 'twill be something much desired, Harry Thaw. What a blessing it will be, Harry Thaw, when from you and yours we're free, Harry Thaw! When the daily newsway sheet prints no Harry-and-repeat, and your wife has frozen feet, Harry Thaw!

CLEAN-UP DAY

FRANKFORT, KY; Sept. 28—Gov. McCreary today issued a proclamation fixing October 9 as "Clean-up day" in this State and called on every citizen to clean up all the oily waste and trash about his place. The reason for the proclamation is, according to Gov. McCreary, that from a $100,000,000 fire loss in the early twenties in this country, the loss has increased until last year it was $240,000,000. Much of this loss he says, could have been prevented by cleaning up. In conclusion he urges the people to remove all fire-breeding agencies so that all chimneys and flues are clean, or that tin, zinc or other sheet metal is placed under the stoves, and to look into places where articles which might produce spontaneous combustion are kept.

WILL EXPLAIN TAX

TREASURY DEPARTMENT TO GIVE INFORMATION OF THE NEW INCOME LAW.

HULL EXPLAINS OPERATION

Representative Who Drew Measure Thoroughly Familiar With Their Business Can Execute Return Very Quickly.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The new income tax will bring forth many inquiries and the treasury department is preparing to answer them.

One of the first steps taken to get general information before the public will be to distribute income tax blanks through post offices, internal revenue officers and other federal agencies.

Representative Cordell Hull of Tennessee, who drew the income tax provision of the tariff bill, made public on Monday a detailed explanation of the tax plan as it will touch the individual citizen.

"The treasury regulations soon to be prepared will make clear to every taxpayer the requirements of the law and its application to income derived from the various kinds of business," said Mr. Hull. "Any person who keeps familiar with his business affairs during the year should have no difficulty in executing his tax return."

"The income tax is divided into two phases, the 'normal' tax of one per cent on the whole income above $3,000 and the additional tax that begins with an extra one per cent above $20,000 end, is graduated to six per cent above $500,000. Wherever the income tax is paid 'at the source,' by a corporation for its employee or in similar cases, only the one per cent normal tax is so paid. The individual has to pay any additional tax himself. The provisions of the law requiring the tax to be withheld at the source does not take effect until November 1, 1913.

"For the first year the citizen will make return to the local internal revenue collector before March 1, 1914, as to his earnings from March 1, 1913, to the end of this year. The collector will notify him June 1 how much he owes, and the tax must be paid by June 30. After next year the tax will apply on the full calendar year.

"If the income of a person is under $3,000 or if the tax upon the same is withheld for payment at the source, or if the same is to be paid elsewhere in the United States, affidavit may be made to such fact and thereupon no return will be required.

"The tax covers all incomes of citizens of the United States whether living here or abroad; those of foreigners living in the United States and the net incomes from property owned or business carried on in the United States by persons living abroad.

"The net income includes all income from salaries or any compensation for personal services; incomes from trades, professions, business or commerce; from sales or dealings in personal property or real estate; from interest, rent, dividends from securities for all business carried on for gain.

"Requests will not be considered income, nor will life insurance paid to a beneficiary or returned to the insured person as a 'paid up' or 'surrendered policy' be taxable. Interest in such property will be included as income, however.

"The amount that may be deducted from a total income includes the cost of carrying on business, actual losses, depreciation allowances and tax exempt or tax paid money. Living expenses cannot be deducted nor can money spent for permanent improvements to property.

"Firms, corporations and the like having the handling of interest, rents, salaries or other portions of the income of any citizen are compelled to deduct the tax for the individual and pay it to the government. The individual then will receive a receipt showing he has paid his tax."

SULZER GAINS THRICE

RULING OF JUDGE FAVORS NEW YORK EXECUTIVE.

Charges That Governor Bartered With Three Legislators on Bills Is Knocked Out.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Governor Sulzer won a triple victory over his accusers Monday at his impeachment trial.

Presiding Judge Cullen of the high court barred the introduction of evidence intended to prove that the governor had made a corrupt political bargain with Assemblyman Patrie of Greene county. He held also that the testimony brought forward to show that Sulzer had made similar bargains with Assemblyman Sweet of Oswego and Assemblyman Prime of Essex was incomplete.

The legislation had to do in each case with highway and bridge improvements provided for in bills to which the assemblymen desired the governor's signature. In the Patrie case, however, no charge was brought in the articles of impeachment, and on this ground Judge Cullen threw out the allegation.

With the introduction of evidence of three more campaign contributions not reported in Sulzer's sworn statement of campaign receipts, and of more evidence concerning the governor's alleged Wall street speculation, the assembly managers drew near the end of their case. Two more contributors and one or two other witnesses will be heard, and then the prosecution will rest.

The missing Frederick L. Colwell, the governor's alleged "dummy" in Wall street transactions, is in a sanitarium, according to counsel for Sulzer, but will consent to testify for the defense under stipulation that he be not arrested for refusing to obey the subpoena of the Frawley committee. Counsel for the managers have not decided whether to agree to this stipulation.

If a subpoena can be served on him, J. B. Gray of the stock exchange firm of Fuller & Gray will be a witness. His partner, Arthur L. Fuller, testified during the day to a story tending to show that Colwell purchased 300 shares of "Big Four" stock, for which $17,000 cash was paid.

The assembly managers introduced into the evidence a bank account of Hugh J. Reilly, a railroad builder for the Cuban government, who recently announced he had loaned Governor Sulzer $26,000. Reilly had relations with Sulzer when the latter was chairman of the foreign affairs committee in congress.

Governor Sulzer tried to persuade contributors to his campaign fund not to testify against him, according to evidence adduced at his impeachment trial Friday.

GEORGIA CONGRESSMAN DEAD

Representative Roddenberry, Who Served in Congress Three Sessions, Dies After One Week's Illness.

Thomasville, Ga., Oct. 1.—State Representative Roddenberry, who had been ill since Saturday, died Thursday. He was born on a farm near Georgia, Jan. 1, 1854, graduated from the University of Georgia, and served in the Sixty-first congress in February, 1910, and was re-elected to the Sixty-second and Sixty-third congresses. Mrs. Roddenberry and five children survive.

FEDERAL JURIST IS HIT BY NEGROES

IMPEACHMENT OF JUDGE VAN DEVANTER ASKED.

Des Moines (Ia.) Man Says Associate Justice of Supreme Court Ruled Illegally.

Washington, Sept. 30.—The house of representatives received a petition Saturday in the form of charges demanding that impeachment proceedings be instituted against Justice William Van Devanter, associate justice of the Supreme court of the United States. It was referred to the committee on judiciary.

The petitioner, D. T. Blodgett of Des Moines, bases his charges on the fact that Justice Van Devanter declined to grant a writ of habeas corpus following Blodgett's conviction for forgery in the Iowa courts.

Blodgett declares that he was placed in jeopardy on the charge, having been acquitted of charge in the county court of county, Iowa, and later being convicted in the Boone county court.

At this juncture in the proceedings Blodgett says Judge Van Devanter asked him a writ of habeas corpus. It is charged that "the associate justice willfully, maliciously and fraudulently pretended that his honest opinion that D. T. Blodgett was imprisoned in accordance with local or state laws and that Blodgett was being held in violation of the constitution and other laws of Iowa."

The justice's office has been closed since the writ was refused.

WASTED DAMAGE

IN THE 10 GRADE VALLEY—LOUISIANA DANGEROUS.

A Number of Towns are Wholly or Partly Under Water.

Western Newspaper News Service. Austin, Tex., Sept. 30.—Reports received from various points along the Gulf coast, from the Sabine river on the east to the Rio Grande on the south, more than 2,000 miles of destruction wrought by the rain is still falling, and rivers and smaller streams are higher than ever known before. The lands are under water and a number of towns have been wholly or partly undated.

Among the places that have suffered losses from the flood are Orange, Brownsville, and a number of smaller places. The inundation in the lower valley of the Rio Grande has caused heavy losses to sugar cane planters and others. For more than 100 miles along that river on the Mexican and American side, the water has spread over a wide expanse of valley and, washing away my home, particularly of the poor masses, and the growing crops. The rice Upper Gulf territory is damaged by over a foot of water.

It has been raining all over Central Texas and the Brazos and Colorado rivers are rapidly reaching high water mark along upper course. No picked on is being ruled.

The jam stood on the shelf. Herbert's mother stood on the threshold. Herbert stood his ground.

"My son," said the mother, pointing at him with astonishment. "I am a-n-r-pried! To think that my little boy would do a thing like that!"

Herbert, resourceful and not at all ashamed, looked at his mother straight in the eye. "Please do not interfere with the 'minnuvres' of a boy scout," he said.

"A boy scout?"
"Yes, mother, after supplies."

DRY SCALE COVERED HEAD

2760 Tamm Ave., St. Louis, Mo.—"My little daughter's head began with a dry harsh scale covering it. First it got a white scale over the top and then it got a dirty brown scale with pus under it. Her hair came out in loots than a week and her head itched and bled. She had no rest. I had to wear a scarf all the time, it looked so badly. She was so sore and had such big brown scabs on her head that the teacher would not let her attend school."

"We took and had her treated for three months with no relief. She kept getting worse until I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used the Cuticura Soap every third day and the Cuticura Ointment at night. In three weeks her head was well of sores. Two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment completely cured her." (Signed) Mrs. Walter Rogers, Nov. 28, 1912.

Eye Alone Detects Icebergs.
There is no present in no absolute method of detecting icebergs, except by the human eye, in the opinion of Captain C. E. Johnson and A. S. Gamble of the cutters Seneca and Miami, which patrolled the route of the transatlantic liners from April to May.

Captain Johnson refuted the prevalent theory that a sudden drop in temperature meant the proximity of icebergs. Little or no change in temperature was noticeable, he said. Nor can icebergs, as generally supposed, be detected with any certainty by an echo from a ship's whistle or bells, as, according to Captain Johnson, perpendicular berg may give an echo from some direction, but a slanting face reflects the sound. About ninety per cent. of the Seneca's efforts to get echoes were futile.

The presence of murre (a kind of auk), the officer declares, indicates the presence of icebergs, but he advises mariners to pay no attention to their birds.

DIDN'T KNOW

That Coffee Was Causing Her Trouble.

So common is the use of coffee as a beverage, many do not know that it is the cause of many obscure ailments which are often attributed to other things. The easiest way to find out for one's self is to quit the coffee for a while, at least, and note results. A Virginia lady found out in this way, and also learned of a new beverage that is wholesome as well as pleasant to drink. She writes:

"I am 40 years old and all my life, up to a year and a half ago, I had been a coffee drinker.
"Dyspepsia, severe headaches and heart weakness made me feel sometimes as though I was about to die. After drinking a cup or two of hot coffee, my heart would go like a clock without a pendulum. At other times it would almost stop and I was so nervous I did not like to be alone.
"If I took a walk for exercise, as soon as I was out of sight of the house I'd feel as if I was sinking, and this would frighten me terribly. My limbs would utterly refuse to support me, and the pity of it all was, I did not know that coffee was causing the trouble."

"Reading in the papers that many persons were relieved of such ailments by leaving off coffee and drinking Postum, I got my husband to bring home a package. We made it according to directions and I liked the first cup. It was rich, saappy flavor was delicious."

"I have been using Postum about eighteen months and to my great joy, digestion is good, my nerves and heart are all right. In fact, I am a well woman once more, thanks to Postum."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Write for copy of the little book, "The Road to Wellville." Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum—must be well stirred.

Hot Postum is a solid food. It is a cereal food, and is a good food for the whole family.

FINISHING TOUCHES ON THE GATUN LOCKS AT PANAMA

This is a splendid view of the upper Gatun locks, taken from the center wall and looking north along upper Gatun locks, showing the almost completed condition of this section of the Panama canal. The water of the canal may be seen on either side in the foreground, being held back by the gates. In the left background is the Gatun lighthouse. The unsightly tracks on the center structure will soon be removed, having been placed there only temporarily during the construction of the center wall.

WORK ON PANAMA CANAL NEAR END

Waters of Gatun Lake Turned Into the Culebra Cut.

BIG DIKE IS TO BE REMOVED

This Will Mark the Practical Completion of the Big Waterway After Nine Years of Labor by an Army of Men.

Colon, Panama, Oct. 1.—The Panama canal stands today virtually complete.

The preliminary steps toward the destruction of the Gamboa dike, which until the present time, has held the waters of Gatun lake out of the Culebra cut, were taken today when the valves in four great 26-inch pipes which pierce the dike were opened and the waters of the lake began flowing into the Culebra cut. Within a few days, it is expected, enough water will have flowed into the cut to form a cushion and prevent the damage that might be done if the dike were blown up and the waters allowed to rush into the empty cut.

The final destruction of the big dike is scheduled for October 10, when charges of dynamite placed in holes already drilled in the dike will be exploded. The explosion of these charges will not completely destroy the dike, but will weaken it and loosen the dirt so that the force of the waters from Gatun lake will carry it away. Steam shovels will remove the remnants of the dike, leaving an open passageway from ocean to ocean.

Canal Really Completes Now. Although the canal will not be officially declared completed for some time and the formal opening of the way to the commerce of the world more than a year distant, the engineers look upon the day of the Gamboa dike as marking the completion of the canal.

Immense Artificial Lake Created. The waters of which are now flowing into the Culebra cut, is the pivotal point about which the entire canal system revolves, and the creation of this lake, together with the construction of Gatun dam, constituted another great engineering feat in the construction of the canal. Gatun lake is an artificial body of water covering about 164 square miles of territory and was created by the building of the Immense Gatun dam and the impounding of the wild waters of Chagres river. Beneath the waters of Gatun lake lies what a few months ago was the valley of the Chagres, dotted with native villages and plantations. The channel of the canal passes through this lake for a distance of 24 miles with a width varying from 500 to 1,000 feet.

At the northern end of the lake is the Gatun dam, which is a really an artificial ridge more than a mile and a half long. Figures along the dam show the magnitude of the work. Nearly half a mile wide at its base, about 400 feet wide at the water surface, and 100 feet wide at the top, the dike which many engineers predicted would never stand the rush of the Chagres' waters, is admitted now to be so strong that nothing short of an earthquake such as has never been known in the Central American region can harm it. The Gatun dam, Gatun lake and the Culebra cut, so gigantic are the proportions of each, dwarf the other engineering works of the canal that in themselves have challenged the admiration of the world.

World Gives Goethals Credit. Col. George Goethals, chairman of the Panama canal project, is the man who led the project to its present stage.

The final voyage through the canal is scheduled for some time during this month. Within another month it is expected the waters in Gatun lake will have risen high enough to bring the waters in the entire canal up to the deep water level required for the passage of the largest ships.

It is said that as long ago as the early part of August, assurances were given Washington officials that if the emergency should arise, the entire Atlantic battleship fleet could be put through the canal into Pacific waters within 60 days from that date. The work has been hurried with that end in view. It is said, as no emergency has existed, but this assurance is an indication of the belief of the engineers that their work is now practically finished.

Culebra Cut Caused Trouble. The excavation of the Culebra cut, into which the water has just been turned, has been one of the engineering feats connected with the building of the canal, and has caused the engineers more trouble than any other portion of the big "ditch." To Col. D. D. Galliard, the engineer of the central division, is given the credit for carrying this portion of the work through to a successful termination.

The disastrous slides in the cut were discouraging to the engineers, nullifying in a few hours the work of many weeks, but Col. Galliard and his assistants have kept untiringly at their work, and at last have conquered the treacherous banks of the deep cut. The engineers believe that the danger of slides will be eliminated now that the water has been turned into the cut.

A little more than a month ago the giant steam shovels finished their work in the Culebra cut. Since that time, the workmen have been busy removing the shovels, the railroad tracks and other machinery used in the excavation work. There is still some dirt to be removed from the cut before the channel is finished, but this work will be done by suction dredges floating on the waters of the canal, and will not interfere with navigation of the waterway by such boats as may be allowed to pass through.

Realize Dream of Centuries. Through the work of these men—all of them members of Uncle Sam's fighting body, the United States has been able to attain what has been in truth the dream of centuries. In nine years these men have carried through an undertaking that was first thought of several hundreds of years ago. The United States government first took definite action looking toward the construction of an isthmian canal in 1824, when the senate voted for the building of a Nicaraguan canal. An expedition was sent to Nicaragua to make an investigation, and reported that the canal could be constructed for $25,000,000, hardly one-twentieth of the amount that the Panama canal will have cost when completed.

As Lasseps First to Dig. The matter rested until after the Civil war, when negotiations for a canal commission were entered into by the United States government. Before anything had been accomplished the concession for a Panama canal had been given to Lucien Napoleon Bonaparte Wyse, a Frenchman. He organized a company, which sold out later to the financiers associated with Ferdinand de Lesseps. The company organized with de Lesseps at its head was the first one to actually begin operations on the isthmus. For eight years de Lesseps struggled manfully against the greatest odds that man ever was called upon to face. Then he was forced to give up the fight, his company collapsing as a result of dishonesty and extravagance on the part of its promoters, and de Lesseps, driven insane by the scandal, ended his days in an asylum.

Such was the history of the isthmian canal project. ed his task without the assistance of such men as Col. H. F. Hodges, Lieut. Col. David Du B. Baillard and Lieut. Col. William L. Sibert, army engineers, who have had charge of various phases of the work, but Col. Goethals is recognized as the real builder of the canal.

Under Colonel Goethals the greater part of the $375,000,000 which the canal will have cost when it is completed has been spent. It has been by far the costliest engineering project in the world. Nearly three-fifths of a billion dollars has been spent in digging a 40-mile "ditch." This means that the Panama canal has cost the United States $10,000,000 a mile.

Over $15,000,000 of the total amount spent has been used to make the canal zone habitable and sanitary. It has been suggested that this is an enormous amount of money to spend in cleaning up a place in which few people will reside permanently, but the engineers say that the sanitation of the canal zone was the chief factor in making the canal a reality. The failure of the French has been attributed to a large extent to the fact that the workmen could not survive in the fever and pest-ridden country.

The building of the great locks which raise a vessel to a height of 87 feet above sea level at one end of the canal and lower it the same distance at the other end, has been in charge of two of Colonel Goethals' assistants, Colonel Hodges and Lieutenant Colonel Sibert. Colonel Hodges' work in installing the immense lock-gates, that form so important a part of the operating machinery of the canal, and his ability to overcome all obstacles had led Colonel Goethals to call him a genius. The building, poisoning and operation of the lock gates constitute one of the delicate problems of lock canal construction, and the proper handling of this problem has been Colonel Hodges' contribution to the work of construction of the canal.

Lieutenant Colonel Sibert has had charge of the building of the great dam and locks at Gatun, in addition to other duties. He saw long, active service in the Philippines, and he is known in the army as a fighter as well as an engineer.

FOWLS SUITABLE FOR

Old Farmer Says He Has Nothing Better Than Plymouth Rocks and Wyandottes.

Many farmers have hobbies and theories which sometimes bring plenty of "experience," but as they look at everything along the lines, says Farm News. Some farmers have been looking for the farmer's fowl, have bred almost breeds in existence, and yet have confessed to failure along these lines. At times he thinks that he has the best bird cornered only to find that it is still at large. A buzz-saw is all right for the purpose for which it was intended, but it can't be used for shaving a man's beard. All these things are very practical in their way, but making them answer for all purposes is very much like corralling a cyclone, something no man has succeeded in doing.

One person wants fowls for the production of eggs, and, therefore, will want the breed whose hens prove to be the best layers. Another wants the best table fowl, and an entirely different breed will be selected. The third man wants a fowl with a certain fancy feather and pays a fancy price for it. A farmer living several miles from town cares very little for any particular kind, yet he will admit that the case of emergency in supplying the necessities of life, he will turn to the farmer's fowl.

The farmer's flock should be prolific without sacrificing other qualities. They should be good table fowls, but they must be of good size, plump and pear-shaped when dressed. They must be hardy and good foragers, as there is much waste food on the farm that can be converted into cash by the fowls. The farmer must not be ready to buy fancy fowls, though they should do these are questions that should be studied by the careful individual who will have to do matter for himself. An who is now off the active life lives on the farm and raises as a diversion says he visits poultry shows just to inspire of the best birds of the new and he says that he has never anything better than the Plymouth Rock and Wyandotte varieties for business stock. He said: "You tell inquirers that these two are still at the top, and there are enough varieties of them to please any sensible person. As to individual taste, the old Indian said if men were all alike they would all want a squaw."

So many varieties of chickens have been evolved that it seems as if there should be nothing left to be sought or desired in the way of beauty or utility.

POULTRY NOTES

Sell all the roosters not needed for breeding.

Don't buy breeding stock that lacks in strength and vigor.

Keep everlastingly and eternally after the lice and mites.

A box of crushed oyster shells should always be kept in reach.

Keep the coops for the small chicks at a distance from the hen house.

Low perches will induce young stock to roost in the poultry house early in life.

The color of the egg shells has nothing to do with the food value of the eggs.

A combination of the heat with lice pests is enough to cause fowls not to do well.

The flavor of eggs and their color depends very much upon the kind of food given.

After a little mixed meal is a good feed for the poultry.

R-STOOKSBURY

THE BEST MAKER OF ALL RINGS, COMBINE YOUR ARTS IN ONE.

—Henry V.

Have we the pleasant duty and notice of the wedding of Barbourville's popular young man, at the Methodist Church, Wednesday evening of this week joined in the holy bonds of marriage, Miss Jessie Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew M.
Becker, well known and respected citizens of our community, and Mr.
G. Stooksbury, a rising young attorney of Knoxville, Tennessee, the regular pastor of the M. E.
Church, Rev. E. R. Overly officiating, the solemn and impressive ceremony of that denomination being used. The Church edifice was beautifully bedecked within and without.
About the pulpit had been effectively arranged a decorative system of leaves, flowers and potted plants to represent a veritable scene of semi-tropical woodlands by moonlight.
While contemplating this artistic imitation of nature which it required but the slightest indulgence of fancy to imagine would at the dawning of dawn become instinct with the winged denizens of the tangled wild wood the mind in-tively wandered back to those of that first wedding in the Garden of Eden. And this train of fancy became only heightened when in almost inimitable tones of richness the vocalist of the occasion, Miss Ida Cole, to organ accompaniment by Mrs. H. C. Black, dispelled the deep silence with the first words of the highly appropriate song: "The Perfect Day," which was delightfully rendered to its termination, to the evident appreciation of the extraordinarily large and select audience composed of the residents of the city and the neighboring communities. As above indicated Mrs.
H. C. Black presided at the organ throughout the interesting ceremony. The bride entered the Church on the arm of her father, preceded by her Maid of Honor, Miss Alma Faulkner, and the groom was accompanied by his Best Man, Mr.
Samuel Young, of Knoxville, Tennessee, Miss Ruth Becker and Miss Marena Sevier were the Brides-Maid. Dr. Leslie Ogden and Andrew Decker, Jr., officiated acceptably as ushers, and Misses whose names escaped us, acted as ribbon bearers.

The bride, who was one of Knox county's most charming and accomplished as well as popular young women wore an indescribably beautiful gown of white charmers trimmed in red and pearl, and carried a showy bouquet of red roses. The color schemes of the Maid of Honor and her assistants was of the Maid of Honor chiffon, each carrying a brides roses. After the a reception was held at the home of the bride on Wednesday.

Understood that the happy couple will spend the next few weeks on a bridal tour of the Southern States, going from here to Asheville, North Carolina, afterwards settling in the home of the bridegroom in Knoxville, Tennessee, where the wishes of a host of admiring friends including The Mountain Advocate and its staff from the guest to the humblest follower. But for the realization of the fact that this is the fitting destiny of our young people such announcements often would give us almost as much sadness as joy at their leaving us. Yet, "Thus it be-cometh us to fulfill all righteousness," said One of the First Sacrament, and it is equally so of the Seventh and final one.

Panama at Union College

The latest pupil to register at Union College is a lad of fourteen from far away Panama, named Armando Rodriguez, who arrived last Thursday. He speaks very little English, but in an interview with our local reporter, who speaks Spanish, he says that he is favorably impressed with what he has so far observed, and thinks of staying at Union College during the entire year, and hoped that by that time he shall have acquired sufficient knowledge of the English to speak and understand it passably well. He is rather a prepossessing, mailed, appealing and intellectually bright young man. He had made the acquaintance of President Portner in the Republic of Panama before leaving that country to become a student in the United States.
Undoubtedly the facilities for communication increase between this country and the other American republics, our educational institutions will receive a large proportion of Spanish-American patronage than heretofore. In the interests of Europe strenuous efforts have been put forth to supplant Spanish as a language study in American schools by some European language. But all over Europe Spanish has pre-eminence in the schools as a modern language study more recently.
In this connection it is reported that Augusto B. Leguia, former President of Peru, has decided that he wants to make North Americans of his two sons, and he has brought them to this country to be educated here. Jose, the elder is at the University of Wisconsin, while Juan the younger, has been sent to an academy at Warrenton, Virginia, the sagacious pater familias intending doubtless to have the two great historic sections of the country represented in his South American home in Peru. Jose is Spanish for Joseph and is pronounced "Ho-say" with the accent on the last syllable. Jose is feminine and pronounced similarly with the accent on the penultima. Juan is Spanish for John and is pronounced Who-ahn. The feminine of Juan is Juana (pro. Who-ah nah.) The Spanish-American boys and girls manifest much interest in learning English and obviously North Americans should be equally interested in learning Spanish, these two languages being the national idioms of the whole Western Hemisphere.

Pastor of Baptist Church Resigns for Richer Fields and Greener Pastures.

At the conclusion of the regular services at the Baptist Church Sunday evening of this week the pastor, Rev. A. C. Hutson, asking the members of the Church to remain, handed in his resignation, to take effect October 12th, which was accepted with expressions of regret on the part of the congregation. The retiring minister, in withdrawing, read a brief address feelingly expressing his reciprocity of regret at the separation from the Barbour-ville Church, but which he felt it his duty to do. In recapitulation briefly features of the Church work here during his incumbency of two years and nine months as pastor, Brother Hutson called attention to the fact that during that time one hundred and forty-four additions had been made to the membership of the congregation which was more than one hundred per cent of its membership when he took charge, and that from having been a missionary Church he had witnessed its becoming self-sustaining. Further than that his new field afforded opportunities for the employment of such faculties as he possessed to possible better advantages for Christianity, and that the remuneration would be better proportioned to the necessities of his growing family expenses, the minister did not indicate where his future pastorate would be. —[G. Brittain Lytle.]

Registration Day

On Tuesday October 7th, 1913, will be registration day. There will be a Poll opened in each Ward on that day to give each voter a chance to Register as a legal voter in the November Election. Let every Republican lay aside his work long enough to perform this duty so that when the election comes on Nov. 4, he may be ready to do battle for the Grand Old Republican Party.

Persever Always.

No talent will enable us to do any work worth while without industry, but no childlike must tempt us to give it up because it is hard. No work can be well done by any one who is unwilling to sacrifice ease to his accomplishment. Perseverance is not only the price of success, but the price of manhood also.

Scrub Flower Pots Occasionally.

Keep a small stiff brush to give the flower pots of house plants an occasional good scrubbing. Even though the pots are set in jardiniere, they need cleaning once in a while. The pots are porous and become easily clogged if not washed occasionally. If the pot is kept clean the soil will keep fresh and will never become sour and kill the plants.

He Had Learned It.

"We are living in a grand and wonderful age," remarked a railway passenger to a stranger who occupied the seat beside him. "Invention is rampant everywhere." "Yes," said his companion, "that's about what I observed, to a witness in a lawsuit against me recently; there are more hills to the square yard now than there used to be to the acre."

Cheap Way to Mount Pictures.

To mount pictures inexpensively on the nursery or children's bedroom, cut all the white margin off the picture, then get some thin, smooth boards 1 1/2 inch larger all round than the picture; stain the boards with dark oak stain about two inches round the edge; varnish them; then paste the picture on the board, leaving an even edge of the stained wood all round; hang on the wall in the usual way.

One of the Bull Moose candidates is that he only has to get one all of the votes he has promised succeeded in that it is not every man and crowds running.

Well, every one believes that J. F. Catron is a modest man and would not do anything that is rash, or destroy any property, but you will find out different; mark my words, he will not be long about it either. I'll tell you what he is about to do, but don't say anything about it until we see, but my honest opinion is that he will by the 4th of November break a "Sasser."

Will if someone don't mind and keep their lips out of other peoples business, and quit slandering and there will something come to light that will not be pleasant to hear, and would not look good in print, but you know that patience ceases to be a virtue after a while, and you can hammer a man till the place that you are hammering gets irritated, and then look out he is surely going to "HOLLER".

There are many of the Bull Moose Party that can't give a single reason why he is Bull Moose, and when you put the question to him the only explanation he can give is to say the old disgruntled, disappointed politician's say. Ring, Clique, when he knows that there is no such a thing in the ranks of the Republican party if there is such a thing in existence, it is their own bunch, look at each party and see which looks most like a Ring or Clique. Every man on the Republican ticket will bear out the assertion that we have a superb ticket, no ring or clique has its finger on one of them, and they will all make faithful public servants and that not one of them will ever be found or have his claim cut for failing to do his duty.

Judge Sampson for Honest Elections

We call your special attention to Judge Sampson's letter in regard to the use of whiskey, or money in the election. We are glad that Sampson has come out in this. It is a custom that has followed ever since we can remember. Time has now come when the Parting of the Ways is at hand, and the man who has that awful habit of taking a bribe, he will shudder and ask himself the question, ought I to be condemned for this thing? The answer comes back to him in the echo of his own voice, yes, if he had made demands of the presiding judges heretofore this great evil would have long since been stamped out in old Knox county, and the man who has taken the bribe will when he stops to think, call on the Great God of the universe to forgive him of that great sin and come to the Polls on November 4th and cast a clean ballot for some clean candidate to fill the office with clean hands and a pure heart. It is a disgrace to our community and State to indulge in the wholesale of votes, not only that, the man who would sell his birthright is like Esau, who sold his for a "Mess of Pottage."

W. MATTHEW MITCHELL

Circuit Court closed Saturday after a hard week's work and many important cases were disposed of, among them and one of the hardest contested was that of W. M. Mitchell vs. the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company, which resulted in a verdict of $10,850.00 in favor of Mr.
Mitchell. The case against the Company was the result of a wreck on the Company's line near Livingston, last April, when Mr. Mitchell was moving his household goods, etc. from this place to Point Leavel, in Garrard county. He had a car chartered and had it loaded with household goods, plows and other farming utensils, cattle, poultry, coal and many other articles, and the train that was pulling him was a double header, and the car that he and his stock were in was next to the engine, and in going up the heavy grade, the draw bars became disconnected and a wreck followed; Mr. Mitchell being injured. The case will go to the Court of Appeals.

The Misses Sevier Entertain

On Monday afternoon from three to five o'clock, at their cozy hugh-low, the Misses Sevier entertained with an unique handkerchief shower in honor of Miss Jessie Decker, one of the season's reigning belles.
The house was artistically decorated in palms, ferns, golden royl and other cut flowers. After the guests had completed the romance book for the bride, they repaired to the dining room which was especially attractive. Here the colors, yellow and white, were carried out in the decorations, and also in the delicious refreshments which consisted of apricot ice served in ma-caroon shells and yellow rosebud mint. In each course of the table which was covered with a handsome lace cloth, were candle sticks holding yellow taper covers with band painted shades, and in the center was what seemingly appeared a beautiful wedding cake.

who was always ready and willing to abide by the Rules of the Order. This dear brother leaves behind him the fragrant Memory of a pure life while he has gone forward to receive the plau-dit, "Well done thou good and faithful servant". We feel like we have lost the active service of a useful member of our Order.
As the Spirit took its flight upward and upward through the waves of light, beyond the sun, set and the stars. The Golden gates of Heaven are left ajar, and one by one earth's weary children are passing through, laying down the cross and taking up the crown. This land is only the border land to a far away more beautiful life beyond the tomb, a life where the bright spirit roves forever with its bright soul mates amid the bloom and beauty of heaven, be it:

Resolved—That our heart-felt sympathy and condolence be and are hereby extended to the mother and father, sisters and brothers of our deceased member, whose loss we all deeply mourn, and be it further:

Resolved—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased brother, a copy to be spread upon the minutes of this Tribe, and a copy, each, be sent to the following newspapers, The Mountain Advocate, The Peoples News, and The Kentucky Redman, for publication.

"BLOOD IS THICKER THAN WATER"

Without good red blood a man has a weak heart and poor nerves. Thinness of the blood, or anemia, is common in young folks as well as old. Especially it is the case with those who work in dirty ventilated factories or those who are shut in doors in winter time with a cold stove burning up the oxygen or emitting carbonic (oxide) gas. This blood, or blood which lacks the red blood corpuscles, anemic people may have been caused by lack of good fresh air, or by over-eating, or by poor digestion or dyspepsia. Sometimes people suffer intense pain over the heart which is not heart disease at all, but caused by indigestion.
Whatever the cause, there's just one remedy that you can turn to—knowing that it has given satisfaction for over 40 years.

DR. PIERCE'S

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

It is a blood cleanser and alterative that starts the liver and stomach into vigorous action. It thus assists the body to manufacture rich red blood which feeds the heart—nerves—brain and organs of the body. The organs work smoothly like machinery running in oil. You feel clean, strong and strenuous instead of tired, weak and faint. Nowadays you can obtain Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery Tablets, as well as the liquid form from all medicine dealers, or tablets by mail, prepaid in $1 or 25c size. Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. PIERCE'S GREAT 1908 PAGE ILLUSTRATED COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER WILL BE SENT FREE, CLOTH BOUND FOR 21 ONE-CENT STAMPS.
